But be prepared, because Tournament Fighters for Super NES, Sega Genesis and NES® puts a whole new face on fighting games. It's intense, one-on-one fighting that has every street hardened warrior drooling with anticipation.

One game, three unique versions!

No matter which format you choose, you're in for a new breed of Turtles fixated on fighting in four different modes.

For Super NES fans there's 12 unique mutant maulers, 12 arenas, adjustable fighting speed for fast fighting action, and spectacular combo assault techniques plus the dreaded Ultimate Attack Moves.

The Sega Genesis version hits you with 11 brutal opponents including evil clones from Dimension X, 11 awesome battlegrounds, adjustable fighting speed and power, instant replay, and amazing arsenals of physical punishment featuring one-of-a-kind Ultra Desperation Attack Moves. And the NES game includes 2-Player and Tournament modes, 17 furious fighters and specialized attack techniques.

Hit the streets and pound more than pavement!

Roto Cutters, Dynamite Bombers, Chopper Chukers, Vacuum Waves, Electric Pile Drivers, you'll feel and inflict them all. If you think you've already experienced real street fighting, wait 'til Tournament Fighters lets you kick the (CENSORED) out of your enemies. So trash the sofa, leave the '90s and pick a

Write to: BARBIE Comics, 387 Park Avenue South, New York, NY 10016

Hey, kids — Since we print your name, age, city and state, please include them on your letters.

Dear BARBIE,

My name is Lauren, and I love your comics! They're great!

I just got two new Barbie dolls. My mom and my dad and I like to listen to ham radio. My dad wants me to ask you if you could make a ham radio Barbie doll. I hope you can.

Lauren Galloway, age 11
Berkeley, MA

Listening to ham radio is a wonderful hobby, Lauren! For our readers who don't know, "ham" radio is when you possess radio equipment at home, and you can listen and communicate with radio broadcasters around the world!

You may want to write to Mattel, the company that manufactures Barbie dolls, with your new doll suggestion! You never know...!

Dear BARBIE,

I am 13 years old and my name is Wendy Burnett. I am from a long way away: Little Current, Manitoulin Island, Ontario, Canada.

I just read my first BARBIE comic and really enjoyed it. When I was 8 years old, I started to collect Barbie dolls.

I really like baseball. My favorite team is the Toronto Blue Jays.

Wendy Burnett, age 13
Ontario, Canada

We're glad you enjoy BARBIE comics, Wendy! And you are a very lucky baseball fan! The Toronto Blue Jays are currently the baseball world champions—for the second year in a row!

Dear BARBIE,

My name is Shy Rhonda Preister and I am 10 years old. I think your comics are really cool. I love Barbie dolls and so does my mom, I'm your #1 fan.

Well, I have to go now. Bye!

Shy Rhonda Preister, age 10
Evanson, IL

Thanks so much for sending a picture of yourself along with your letter, Shy! It's always nice to see the smiling faces of our fans! Unfortunately, we are unable to return any material we receive. So — to all our readers — please don't send us things that you want back! Thanks!

Dear BARBIE,

Hello. My name is Samantha and I am 5 years old. I love you lots. I love your comics. They are very nice.

I hope you will write back to me.

Samantha Lee Jordaan
Johannesburg, South Africa

We're very sorry, Samantha, but we cannot write back personally to each letter that we receive. We get hundreds of letters each month — there just isn't time to write back to everyone! But we do read and enjoy every letter we get, and we print the few we have room for on this page every month in BARBIE and BARBIE FASHION.

By the way, we noticed that you live in a country that has recently been in the news, as democracy develops in South Africa for the first time. If any of our readers would like to know more about this country and its very interesting history, we suggest checking out an atlas or encyclopedia. An adult or your public or school librarian can help you!

Dear BARBIE,

My name is Jeneva. I live in South Dakota. I just moved there from Wyoming.

I just started third grade. My favorite story is "Heart to Heart."

Jeneva Plumb
Wall, SD

We hope your move went well, Jeneva! Moving away from old friends and starting a new school can be difficult, but it can also be a lot of fun. After all, you get to meet new people, make new friends, and see new places!

Dear BARBIE,

I love your comics. How do you make them? I really like the issue I just got.

Sarah Rohrbaugh
Mineral Point, PA

Good question, Sarah! Making a comic is a process that involves many people and takes several months. First, the writer writes a story, then the penciler draws it, telling the story in pictures. These are penciled pages. The writer then comes back to script the penciled pages, writing the word balloons and captions.

Next, we send the penciled pages and the script to the letterer, who letters the words and draws the balloons by hand. The inker is the next person in line. He or she inks over the pencil art with black ink, adding depth and shadow. Last, but certainly not least, comes color, as the colorist adds beautiful hues to each page!

After all that, which takes anywhere from three to six months, we send the art to the printer. There it is prepared for the printing presses, then printed and shipped to the stores where you buy your BARBIE and BARBIE FASHION comics!

Hope that helps!

Dear BARBIE,

I really liked issue #34 and I'm glad the girl learned her lesson in the story with Nick making a video.

I always play with my Barbies because I love them so much. I have so many Barbies that my mom won't let me get many more.

Hallie Byington, age 6
Vashon, WA

Thanks for writing, Hallie! You weren't the only one who loved issue #34! Check out the next letter!

Dear BARBIE,

My name is Amanda and I am 10 years old. I love BARBIE comics. My favorite is issue #34.

I have so many BARBIE comics. I love to play Barbies. So does my brother. His name is Matt.

My friend Casey never read Barbie comics. I let her read one and she loved it. I hope to get more BARBIE comics!

Amanda Parker, age 10
Cheraw, SC

It's great that you can play Barbies with your brother, Amanda — and that you share your comics with others! By the way, if you want to be sure to never miss an issue of BARBIE or BARBIE FASHION, you may want to think about subscribing! That way you'll receive every issue at home through the mail every month! You'll find a subscription form at the back of this very issue — but be sure to check with a parent or adult first!

OUT WEST!

This month we get the chance to see Barbie as a cowgirl! And just in time, you the BARBIE and BARBIE FASHION readers, have supplied Barbie with some wonderful western wear! Thanks to all of you, she'll be looking lovely whether wrangling horses or riding in a rodeo!

If you have a fashion for Barbie for any occasion, be sure to send it to us here at BARBIE, c/o Marvel Comics, 387 Park Avenue South, New York, NY 10016. Please be sure to include your name, age and full address.

Wendy Simanton, age 6
(Special thanks to brother Aaron)
